Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation; Universal Service WCB Docket No. 06-122

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On July 26, 2007, Scott Turicchi, President of j2 Global Communications, Inc. (“j2 Global”), Jeff Adelman, General Counsel of j2 Global, Al Mottur, Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, and Philip Verveer and the undersigned, Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP, met with Scott Bergmann, Legal Advisor to Commissioner Jonathan Adelstein. Mr. Turicchi and Mr. Adelman provided an overview of j2 Global’s operations and discussed potential reform of the universal service contribution mechanism, including the numbers-based contribution proposal.

Mr. Turicchi and Mr. Adelman noted that j2 Global uses over ten million telephone numbers to provide outsourced, value-added messaging services, such as converting facsimile transmissions to email and voice messages to emailed wav files. Of those ten million telephone numbers, approximately 9.5 million are used to provide free service to customers. In the event that all telephone numbers, regardless of the uses they facilitate, trigger universal service contribution obligations, j2 Global would have to reevaluate this free service. This would likely result in loss of service to the millions of customers who value j2 Global’s free services, without any corresponding benefit to the universal service fund.

Mr. Turicchi and Mr. Adelman suggested that in the event telephone numbers are used in whole or in part as the contribution trigger, it would be appropriate to exempt uses of the type exemplified by j2 Global’s services.
